A CKUT 90.3 FM PROGRAMME GUIDE

...IS IT REALLY
TRUE?

YES, MORA MY
DEAR... PLEASE SNAP
OUT OF IT!

...public reaction to CKUT-FM going 24 hours reaches new heights...

ONE YEAR ON-AIR!!!

On November 26th CKUT celebrated its first birthday with a big bash at the Rialto Theatre where over 700 listeners and staff turned up to meet each other and generally have a good time. The past year has seen some trying times at Radio McGill as well as some moments of glory. The glory has usually been a result of your response to the programming we are doing so please keep picking up the phone (or your pen) to letting us know what you think.

If you are new to CKUT, let me paint a brief sketch of Montreal's alternative station. We are a non-profit, campus/community FM station broadcasting at 5700 watts. Our programming is aimed at filling the gaps in Montreal radio. That's why you won't hear Top 40 but you will hear Byzantine Masses, Bushhole Surfers, Billy Bragg, Hank Williams... you got the drift, they're all listed here.

There is a large hole in Montreal radio when it comes to programming that meets the special interests of special communities. We are filling that hole with our news and sports coverage and programmes like Earth Tremors (peace & environment), the Homo Show, Belly of the Beast (development issues), Voice of the Poor, and Friends (Black community).

And we let you know of the myriad of Montreal cultural happenings that aren't listed in the Gazette. Happenings that are reflected in programmes like Radio Stage, Somewhere in the City, Breathing Fire, Radio Art and others listed in this guide.

The station is operated with the human power of more than 260 volunteers and is dependent on the ideas and support of the community it serves. Please feel free to use us as an outlet for your creativity. Give us a call or come down to the offices on McTavish. And THANKS for listening.

INSOMNIAC RELIEF COMES JAN. 9th

Responding to public demands for more programming, CKUT 90.3 FM goes around the clock starting January 9th.

Some show hosts like Franco, John

Bickle, Sue and Julia will be familiar to you. Others like Martin, Daphné, and Danielle will become old friends very quickly.
